

~sparkling, white and rosé~

Maison Louis Picamelot Blanc de Blanc. 9

Crisp bubbly with refreshing lemongrass & apple notes.

Bin 175. Burgundy, France

White Wine of the Week. 8

Rotating selection of summer whites.

Please see the card on your table. Bin 103.

Chateau Buisson-Redon Bordeaux Blanc. 7

Classic granite minerality and a light, fresh finish.

Bin 114. Bordeaux, France

Ponzi Pinot Gris. 9

Light aromas of almond & cream lead into a well-balanced finish.

Bin 104. North Willamette Valley, Oregon

Adam Puchta Chardonef. 7

Fresh pear, green apple and herbal characters.

Bin 240. Hermann, Missouri

Rosé of the Week. 8

Chosen for archetypical rosé qualities.

Please see the card on your table. Bin 84.

~red~

Red Wine of the Week. 9

Chosen to showcase interesting reds from a wide variety of regions.

Please see the card on your table. Bin 80,

Walnut City Pinot Noir. 9

Light and fruit-forward with mild, food-friendly tannins.

Bin 144. Willamette Valley, Washington

Rose Dieu Plan de Dieu Cotes du Rhone Villages. 8.5

Rich and complex, well balanced with a smooth finish.

Bin 107. Southern Rhone Valley, France

Chateau de Lascaux Coteaux de Languedoc. 10.5

Red berries and dry spice blend into an earthy, full-bodied sip.

Bin 249. Languedoc, France

~ on the sweeter side ~

Pamplune Rosé. 6

All the rage in France, this rosé has been infused with grapefruit and peach juices. Bin 138.